The GRAFFITI FOR THE SOUL Series

From a collection amassed over many years, The GRAFFITI FOR THE SOUL Series is a wonderful assortment of some of the most unpredictable, freaky, ridiculous, outrageous, and inspirational graffiti that has appeared on building walls, subways, bridges, and public washrooms. The subject matters are as varied as the workplace, the sexual, the metaphysical, the literary, the political, the religious, and the educational.

The GRAFFITI FOR THE SOUL Series (there are seven e-books) by Ernie J. Zelinski is a fascinating look at other people's thoughts, a great collection of amusing, unique humor, and passionate opinion.

The seven volumes from The GRAFFITI FOR THE SOUL Series are available on the The Real Success Resource Center Website at: www.Real-Success.ca.

GRAFFITI FOR THE WOMAN'S SOUL

The E-Book That Records Some of the Interesting
Philosophy Women Write on Washroom Walls

This e-book may be freely distributed.

Shockingly enough, this is a FREE e-book to be given away — anyway you want. In fact, I would love it if you send out lots and lots of copies. It may not be sold nor modified in any way. You can have the movie rights, however, provided that you share half the profits with me and give me the starring role beside Nicole Kidman.

You may give GRAFFITI FOR THE WOMAN'S SOUL to your friends and co-workers as a gift. You may also give it away on your website, offer it to other websites, include it as a free bonus, or include it in a package deal.

VOLUME #4

GRAFFITI FOR THE WOMAN'S SOUL

This volume from The GRAFFITI FOR THE SOUL Series focuses on graffiti written by women when they visit the washroom. An article in the Toronto Star cited Jane Gadsby, then a master's student in linguistics and anthropology at York University, whose thesis centered on graffiti. Of particular interest to Gadsby is the difference between men's and women's graffiti. She found that men tend to write slogans or statements and women tend to debate. According to Gadsby, women tend to be much wordier than men in writing advice, warnings, and appeals for solidarity. One entry in a women's washroom ran 221 words! Gadsby also found that women tend to write about relationships and feelings more than men.

Although Gadsby found that women tend to debate personal issues, women do write some slogans and humorous statements. Following are some of the more interesting of these which have appeared in women's washrooms. None of the lengthy debates have been included since they all were too serious for the tone and character of this book.

If you are wondering whether I spent a lot of time in women's washrooms to acquire graffiti, the answer is no. The items that appear in this section have been supplied by several female friends of mine.

Top 10 Reasons to Buy The Joy of Not Working

1. You are independent and more creative than most people.
2. You were born a lover and not a workaholic.
3. You don't want the cheese; you just want to get out of the trap.
4. You like books that are reader friendly with lots of cartoons, quotations, and exercises.
5. You like books that make you smile and challenge traditional ways of living and thinking.
6. You agree with the words of Bertrand Russell: "One of the symptoms of an approaching nervous breakdown is the belief that one's work is terribly important."
7. You know that people who burn the candle at both ends are not anywhere as bright as they think they are.
8. Your parents and co-workers will not approve of your adopting this book as your lifestyle Bible.
9. You know a good deal when you see one — if a book has been published in 17 languages in 20 different countries and has sold over 200,000 copies, it must have great value.
10. You feel morally superior to the hard workers of this world because you know that the secret to a happy and fulfilling life is to work smart and not hard.
